Whether a newcomer to our state or here for a return visit—Oklahoma bids you a hearty welcome. You'll find us easy to know and eager to please. If there is anything we can do to make your stay more pleasant, ask the Oklahoman nearest of hand. He'll be happy to help, or direct you where you can find what you want. It is our hope you will have time to enjoy some of the many places available here. This is still a new land, with many fresh lures for the vacationer. Our rivers and lakes, which we have in great abundance, being such a young state—less than 50 years old—many of our most scenic spots are just now being discovered by the nation's travelers. Wooded mountains, lakes, streams, historical sites, Indian lore, and Indian villages—all these things are within a couple hours drive of wherever you may be in Oklahoma. They are here for your pleasure. Enjoy them. The only request we make is that you observe the traffic signs and speed limits posted on our highways. We appreciate having you visit us and want no misfortune to befall you while in our midst.
